Axcelera is currently recruiting for experienced Fractional CFOs/Finance Directors to join our team in London working with fast growing SMEs on a fractional portfolio basis.

Imagine being a Chief Financial Officer / Finance Director who can choose your own clients, set your own schedule, and enjoy the freedom and flexibility of working on your own terms. Whether you're an independent CFO who's ready for a new challenge, a corporate CFO who's tired of the same old routine, or a working or returning CFO parent who values work-life balance, this is your chance to make a difference.

As a CFO, you'll be the trusted partner of visionary private businesses, empowering them to achieve their dreams. You'll go beyond the numbers and help them shape their strategy, growth, and impact. You have the drive, the skills, and the attitude to help our clients succeed, whether they are business owners, entrepreneurs, CEO's or MD's.

As a CFO at Axcelera you will focus on what you do best, providing strategic direction and not getting involved in the operational weeds. You will be heading the team and will be working with our great Financial Controllers and Management Accountants who will take care of all of that.

You will have access to our best practice tool kit but we will trust your judgement to know when and whether you use it. As we value your experience.

- Ensuring compliance with accounting standards, tax laws, and regulations
- Leading and mentoring the finance team and collaborating with other stakeholders

You will have:

- A minimum of 5 years of experience as a CFO or equivalent in a corporate or SME environment

- A proven track record of delivering financial results and value creation
- A strong understanding of the SME market and the challenges and opportunities it presents
- A high level of analytical, problem-solving, and decision-making skills
- A flexible, adaptable, and proactive approach to work
- A willingness to travel to client sites as required

You

Your unique strength is your ability to forge authentic and lasting relationships with our clients. You are more than a CFO, you are an advisor, a strategist, and a friend. Your clients will say “this person and Axcelera really care and are with me every step of the way”.

You will work closely with our team of Finance professionals in a highly supportive environment, to create a great fractional finance function which perfectly aligns the strategic and operational facets to give our clients the numbers that accelerate their growth.

You will be available for a minimum of 2 days per week and work 7.5-hour days on a self-employed basis.

Can travel happily within 45min to work with clients onsite, although most of our clients work on a hybrid basis so there will also be an element of home working.
